SISTER LINDA KOONTZ

I was greatly inspired by the Sisters of the Holy Names as I attended St. Aloysius grade school and Holy Names Academy in Spokane, Washington. I finished the second half of my junior year at Immaculate Heart Academy in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho and graduated from there.

I followed my desire to serve God by entering the congregation at Marylhurst, Oregon in 1960. Upon graduation from Fort Wright College, I taught school at Sacred Heart and St. Francis in Spokane and at Immaculate in Seattle, Washington. In 1971 I was released from full time teaching to serve in the Catholic Charismatic Renewal.

1977 was a life-changing year. I was invited to El Paso, Texas to take part in an evangelization program among the poorest of the poor in Juarez, Mexico. Upon the invitation of Fr. Rick Thomas, S.J. I joined with his community in full time service to the poor in the hills of Juarez, Mexico.

In 1986 I founded Spirit of The Lord International Mission, an outreach to the poor, in Juarez, Mexico as well as the Caribbean and other parts of the world. In Juarez, Mexico the mission has changed lives by providing education for the poorest children. We have built houses for those who lived in cardboard shacks and have provided food, medicine, and care for families. The focus of Spirit of The Lord International Mission is evangelization: bringing the Good News of Jesus Christ to the World. I have been privileged to serve in the Catholic Charismatic Renewal as a preacher and teacher around the world and in every state of the United States. I am sincerely grateful to be a part of the Sisters of The Holy Names of Jesus and Mary whose mission is to minister to the poor.

MARIA VADIA

MARIA , was born in Havana and at the age of 10 years old fled to Miami with her family to escape the Communist regime in her native country. She attended Catholic schools and was a "Sunday" Catholic with no personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. Later married to a wealthy man, she was gripped with materialism; yet in the midst of everything that the world had to offer, she knew that something was missing. Maria was baptized in the Holy Spirit in 1987 and consecrated her life to the Lord Jesus Christ and to the preaching of the Gospel. In spite of great adversity, the Lord has been with her like a "MightyWarrior"(Jeremiah20:11) Active in the Catholic Charismatic Renewal of the Archdiocese of Miami, Maria has spoken at many conferences and has travelled extensively around the world including America, the Caribbean, Malta, Ghana, Uganda, Tanzania, Zimbabwe, Indonesia, New Zealand, Canada, India, Poland and Italy, among other nations, bringing a message of faith, salvation and healing. She is Founder of the "Jesus is Lord" Chapter of Magnificat in Miami, a ministry to Catholic women, and is connected with Glory House of Miami, a safe haven for human traffic victims. Led by the Holy Spirit, Maria's foundation is helping the Pygmies with new houses in Kabale,Uganda. As Founder of The Glory of God Foundation, Maria is committed to making Jesus known to the nations by the preaching of the Gospel in the power of the Holy Spirit. It is her desire to see the Catholic Church restored to the beauty of the Bride of Christ with miracles, signs, and wonders. Maria and her team, have been helping God's people enter into deeper worship and experience the Glory of God. Together with Fr. Tom di Lorenzo she sponsors the School of the Holy Spirit and Days of Glory conference. Maria has authored nine books: "There is Power in Your Tongue (En) / Hay Poder en tu Lengua" (Sp) , "Pressing on in The Spirit", "An Arrow in His Hand", "Healing is for You", "Break Open Your Wells", "Victory in the Eye Gate", "No More Orphans" and "Jesus Man of War!". She is mother to four grown children: Ricky, Victor, Eddy, and Rosario, and grandmother to nine: Victoria, Alejandra, Eduardo, Micaela, Guillermo, Andrea, Lulu (Luisa Maria), Mariana and Rosario.
